1. The Karens will demand the following:
 - a. Minority rights for all Karens throughout Burma.
 - b. An educational system for Karens equal to that of the Burmans.
 - c. Equal commercial opportunity, including Government of Burma (GOB) aid for Karen timber and mining enterprises now in the hands of the British, Chinese, and Indians.
 - d. The immediate release of all Karens detained by the GOB.
 - e. The restoration of an unspecified number of Karen officers to the Burmese military forces and of officials to the civil service.
2. The Karens will not insist on a separate state.
3. The Karens will insist on a new national census to establish the actual Karen population as a basis for Karen minority rights.¹

1. ☐ Comment. The Karens maintain that the Karen population numbers well over four million. The extent of Karen support for such a program cannot be judged.
